

The Playbook

How to use this book

In a few words...

We hope this book will help you get in the game and become active in your faith. Just like the plays you will find in any sports game, the Christian walk will have its obstacles, will take training, and equipping. However, here's the great news-in the end, we win. In this book we hope you will find some tools to grow in your faith, to be challenged, and to provide ways for God to speak to you closely and personally.

The layout.

In this book you'll find a bunch of blank space. Each day will start out with a prompt, a scripture, or a statement. Other than that you'll find a bunch of blank space. Feel free to use this to draw, to worship, to write out your prayers, or just to tell God about your day.

week three

Read Proverbs 4:23.

When was a time you let your guard down?

What happened?

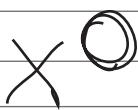

Scripture refers to pride as a disease.

Where are some areas where you have been prideful?

Read Proverbs 16:18.

Confess to God about your pride.

Where are some areas you are struggling doing things against God? Maybe it's stealing, lying, cheating, or being disrespectful. Ask for God to come and cleanse your heart.

KEEP ON

week four

When have you experienced a time where you just wanted to give up? What was your first response?

Read James 1:2-3. When was your faith tested? Has it ever been? Would you be able to get back up again?

Paul speaks of following Jesus as keeping his eyes fixed on a prize. Have you had a fixed gaze with Jesus this week? Have you been following Him with everything you've got?

Fact: The average run in football is 4 yards. Pretty sad fact. Yet they get up and do it again. How do you get back up after you've fallen?

He is a prize. Not just to experience in heaven, but from now until we meet him. Write out you worship to him.

Need some help? Look at the Psalms.
